SCHULTE HIGH SCHOOL

TERRE HAUTE, INDIANA

PAUL SCHULTE HIGH SCHOOL

The Mitre

1956

Having had a part in the growth of Schulte High School during the first three years of its existence, we seniors feel a deep pride in our school. We have watched it grow in spirit and tradition, and with each step of its growth it has demanded of us the respect we have so freely given. Never shall we forget the many lessons we have learned at Schulte. Our only wish is that we bring to our Alma Mater some future glory by putting those lessons into practice.

SCHULTE HIGH SCHOOL

TERRE HAUTE, INDIANA

"on top of the world"

AN UNBELIEVABLY FANTASTIC IDEA?

Still, we claim it is no exaggeration for there is something wonderfully unique about Schulte High School. Every school morning God sends His only begotten Son down to Schulte, into the very midst of the student body whose privilege it is to assist at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. And a fair percentage of them receive Holy Communion daily.

Christ with us in the early morning

Christ saluted in the opening prayer that begins each class

Christian ideals translated for us

The Christian philosophy of life made practical

This is the atmosphere of each Schulte day.

Recognizing the source of our daily inspiration, we, the Mitre staff, have chosen the Sacrifice of the Mass as the theme of our 1956 Mitre.

Charles Poths and Darby Costello give silent tribute to him whose fatherly interest procured the first co-educational high school for the Catholic youth of Terre Haute.

In Appreciation

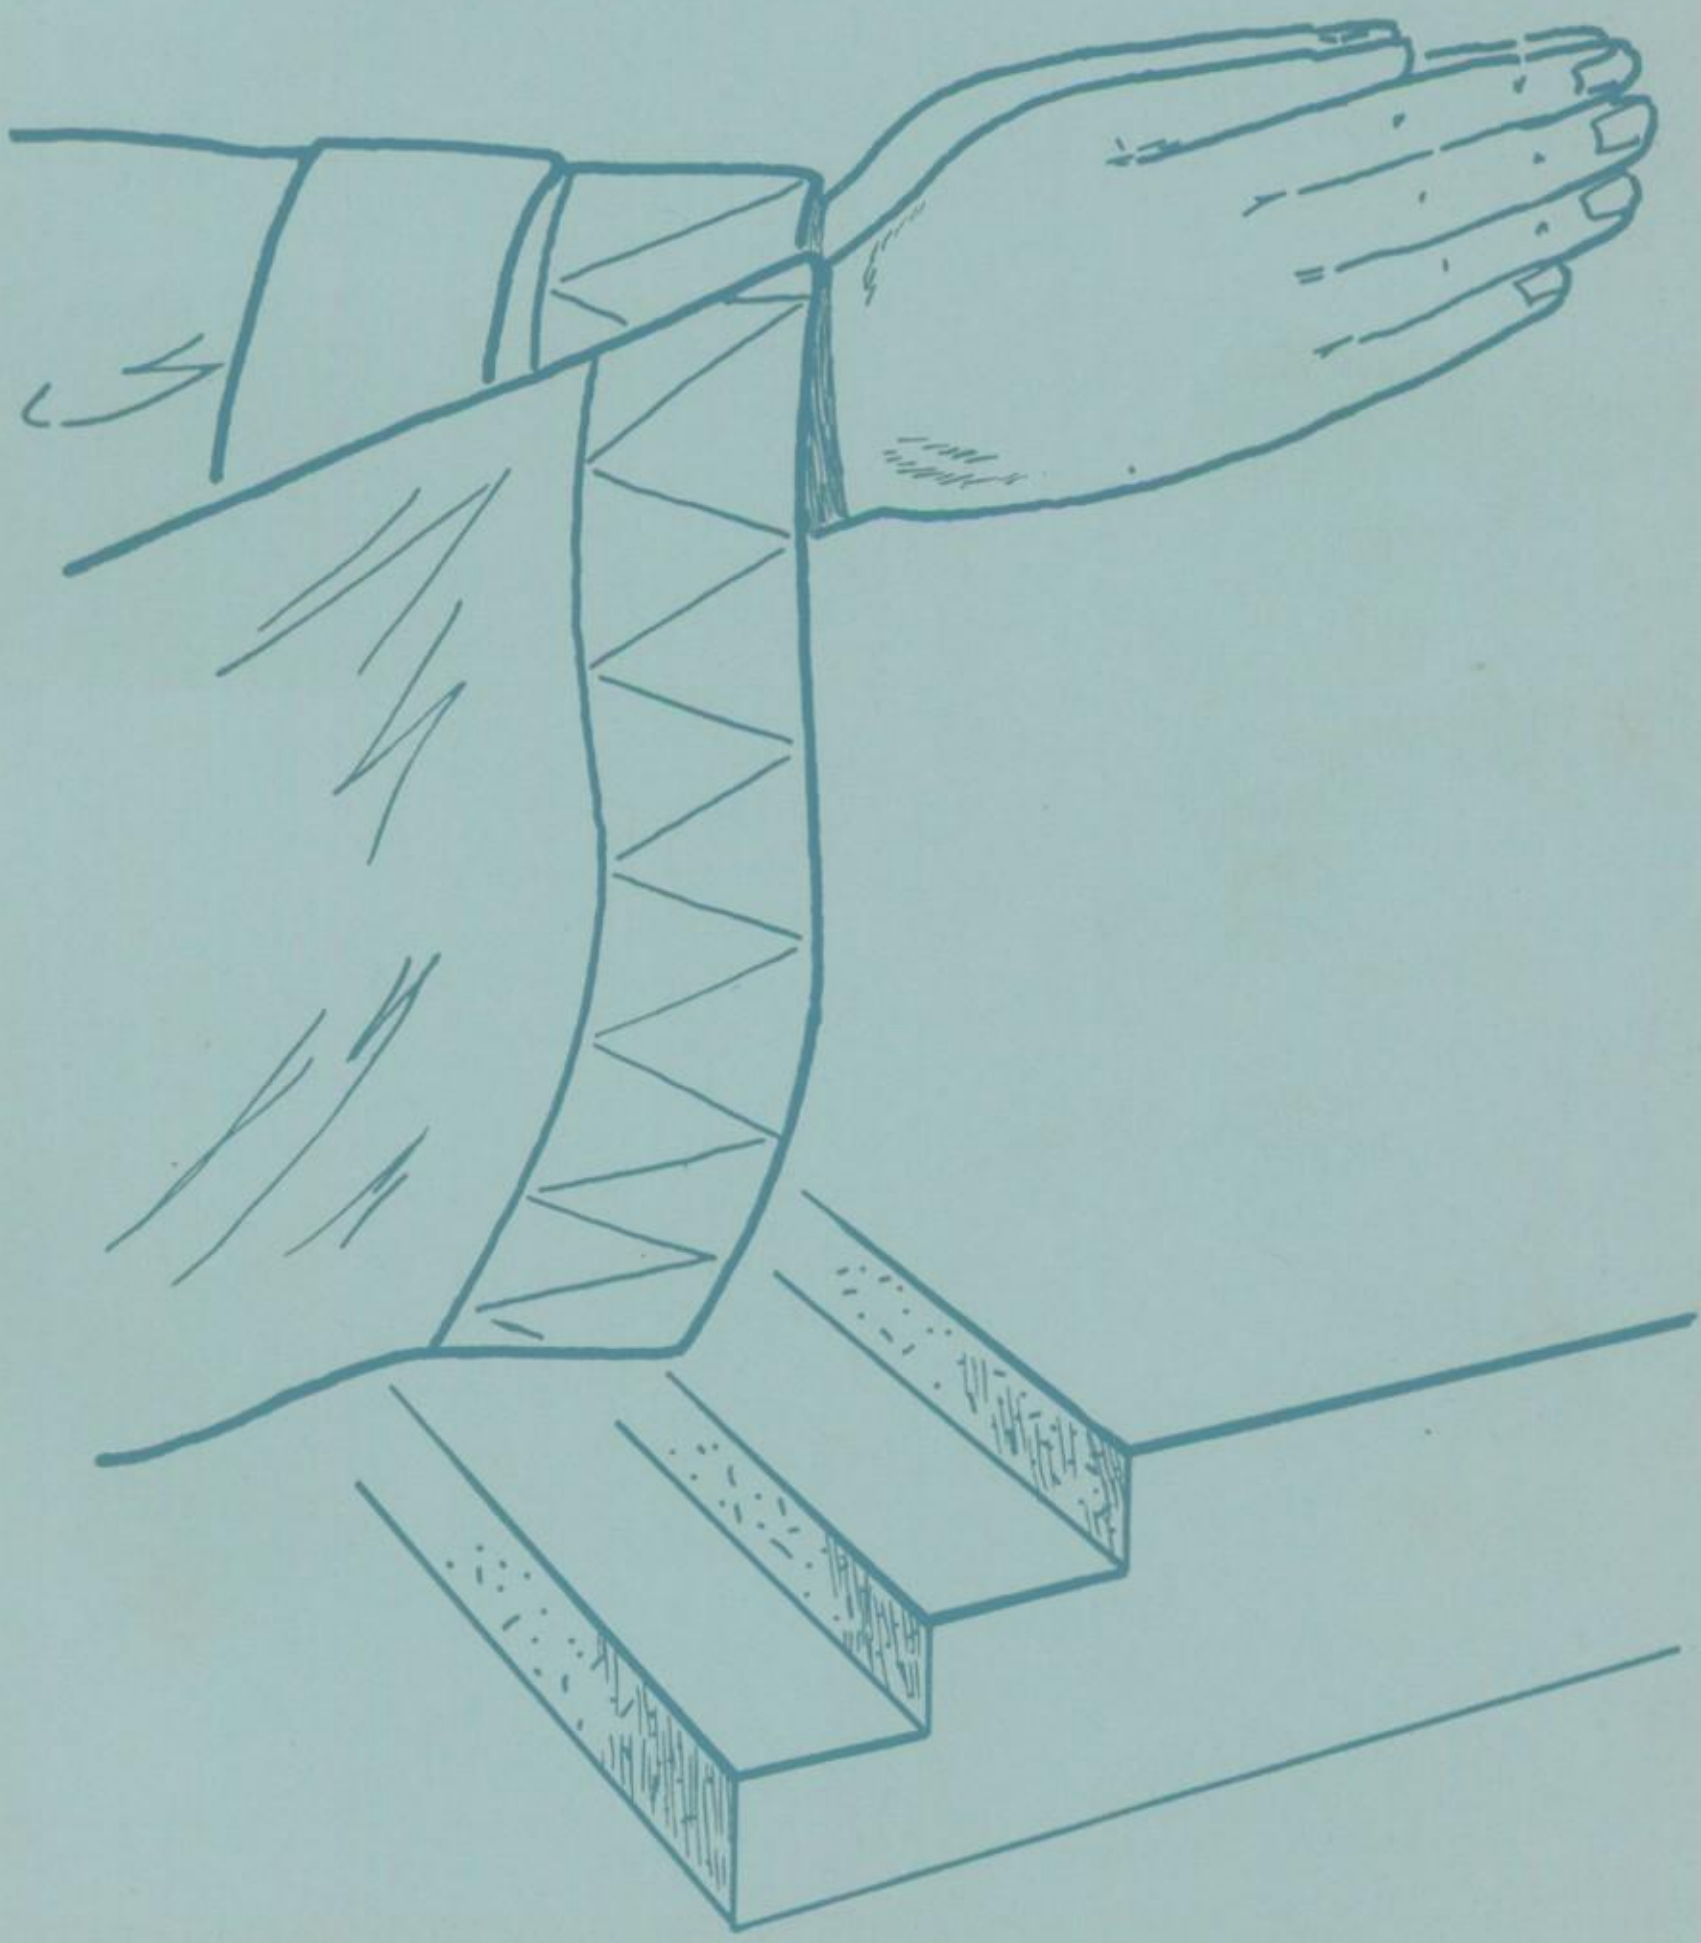
The Catholics of Terre Haute had for many years envisioned their sons and daughters attending a co-educational Catholic High School; and the opening of Paul Schulte High School, September 14, 1953, was the fruition of that dream. Fortunate, indeed, were the Terre Hauteans to have an archbishop who would give actuality to their plans for such a modern school.

We, the seniors, the last of the transferees from parochial and city high schools, being conscious of the distinctions in the two school systems, have, we believe, a deeper appreciation of the type of education offered by Schulte.

Our senior salute to Archbishop Schulte, the prelate who gave ecclesiastical permission to erect our school, who encouraged the plans and blessed the building; and our sincere gratitude to parents and friends whose Catholic-mindedness and sacrifices financed the building and made possible our education here.

Those who stimulate our desires toward worthwhile careers, who encourage us when we are depressed, who compliment us on our achievements, and who point the way to eternal life—they are the persons responsible for our success in high school. To our faculty, in gratitude for their earnest endeavors in behalf of our eternal and temporal welfare, we dedicate this, the 1956 Mitre.

Introibo
ad altare
Dei



Introibo ad altare Dei

We who so desire come to school at 7:30 when Holy Mass begins.

"I will go in unto the altar of God to God who giveth joy to my youth."

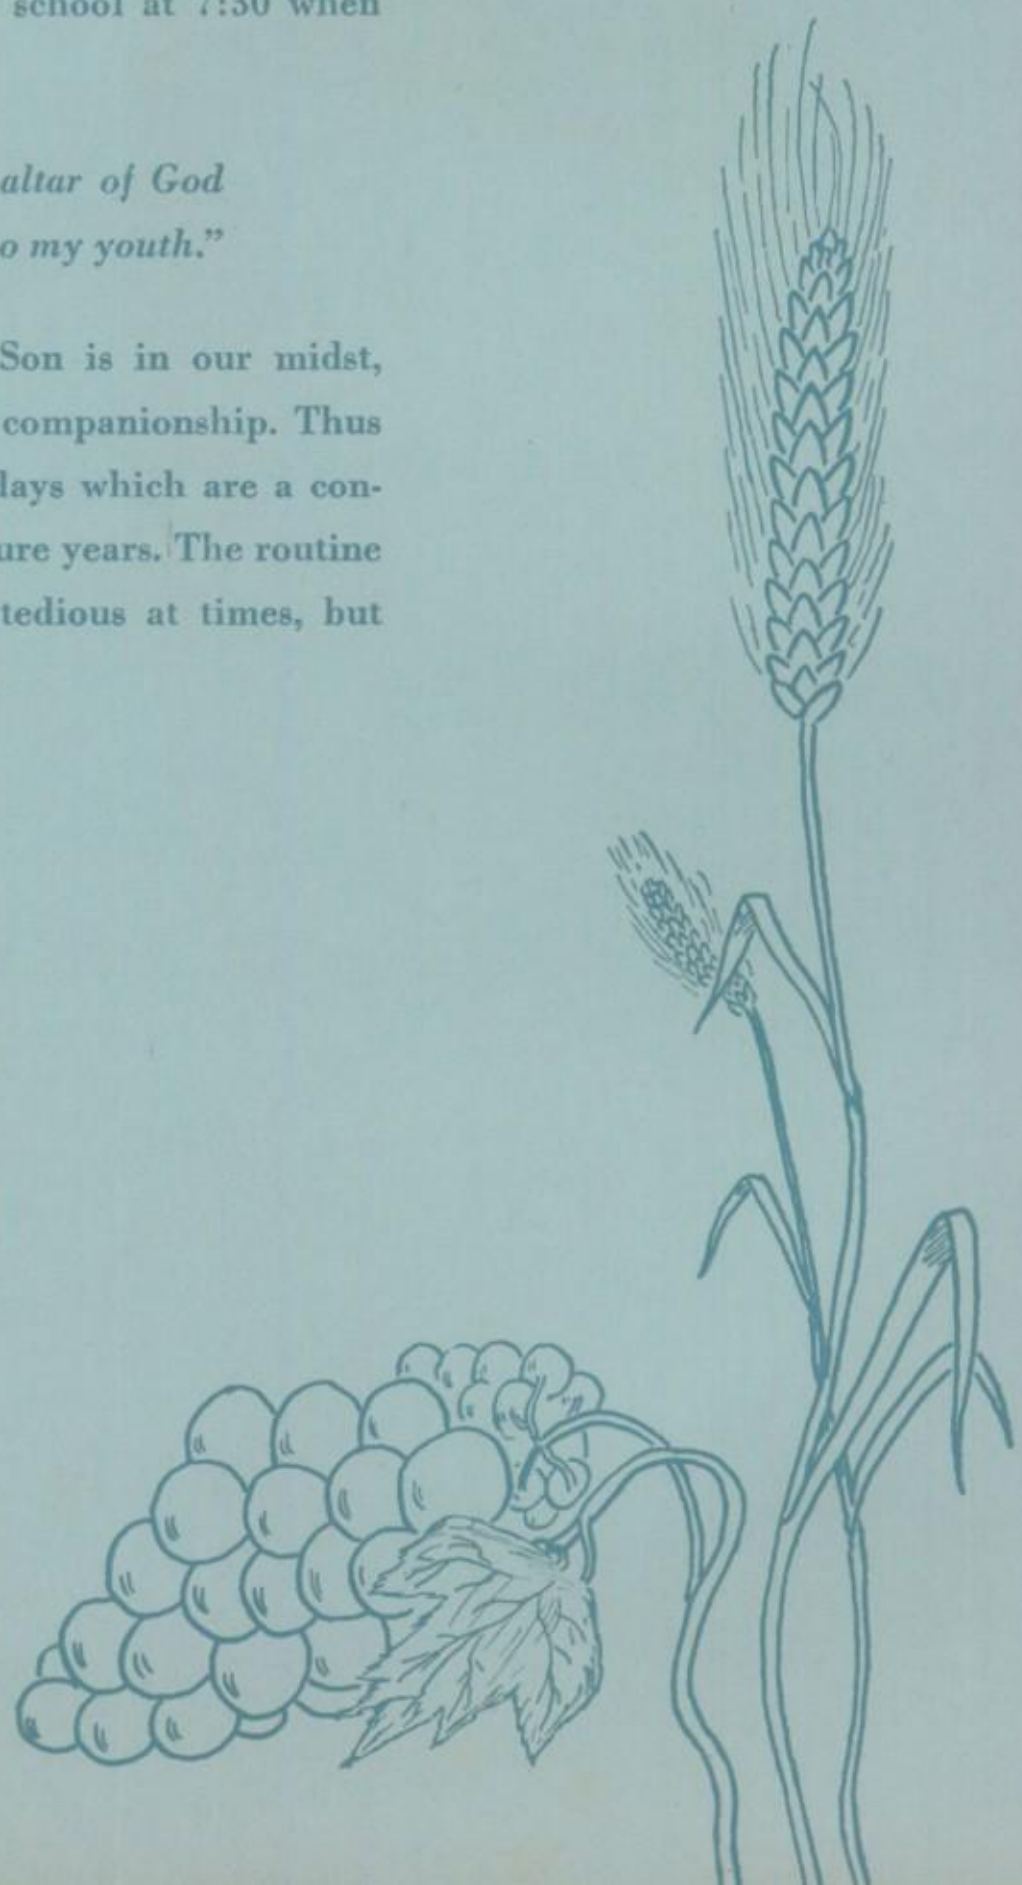
And God's only begotten Son is in our midst, and we can know His intimate companionship. Thus we may begin our school day, days which are a constructive preparation for the future years. The routine and school day monotony are tedious at times, but still God gives joy to our youth.



God bless you, Wilma Jean!

Principal Fr. Jos Beechem

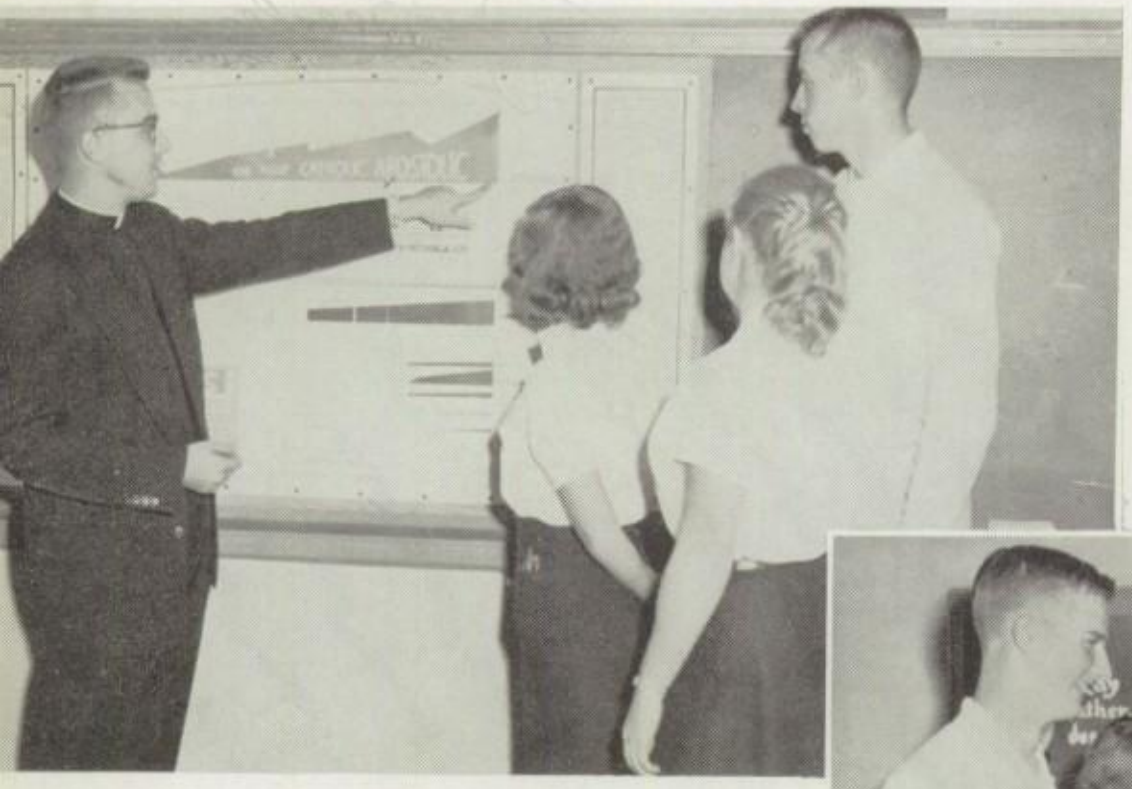
If we were to choose the most loyal Schulte fan, we would be compelled to pick our own principal, Father Beechem, a loyalty proved by unending efforts in behalf of Schulte and its students. Father's attitude toward each student is one of interest and priestly consideration; always he has a minute to listen to our problems.

Father is likewise the busiest person at Schulte, for he must not only see that the various departments run smoothly, but he must also see to the financial status of the school. We shall remember him always with gratitude as the kindly priest who inspired us to greater social, educational, and spiritual heights.

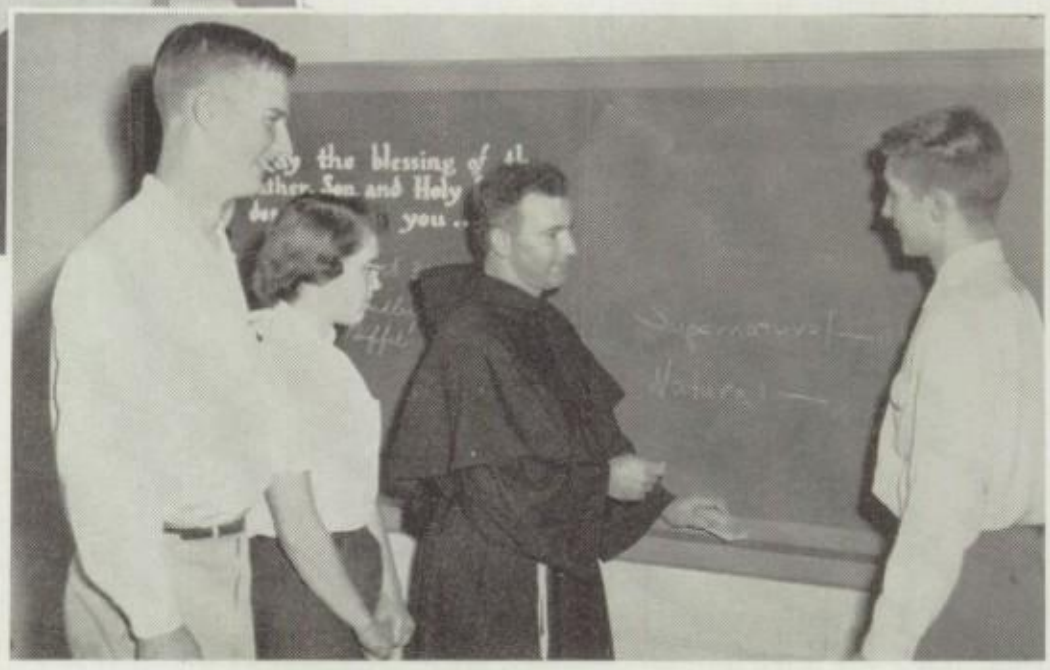
Dean of Girls

Sister Marie Virginia, a perfect example of the Christian woman, seeks to mold the Schulte girls in the ways of the Christian young lady. As Dean of Girls, she has been the friend of each girl, giving to her advice, recognizing her needs, and helping her to a realization and admiration of the beauties of a Mary-like girl. For Sister's understanding, her patience, and her endeavors in our behalf, we shall be ever grateful.

FACULTY



Father John E. Fish in senior apologetics class points out to Colleen Murphy, Rita Peperak, and Charles Poths the growth of the Catholic Church throughout the centuries.



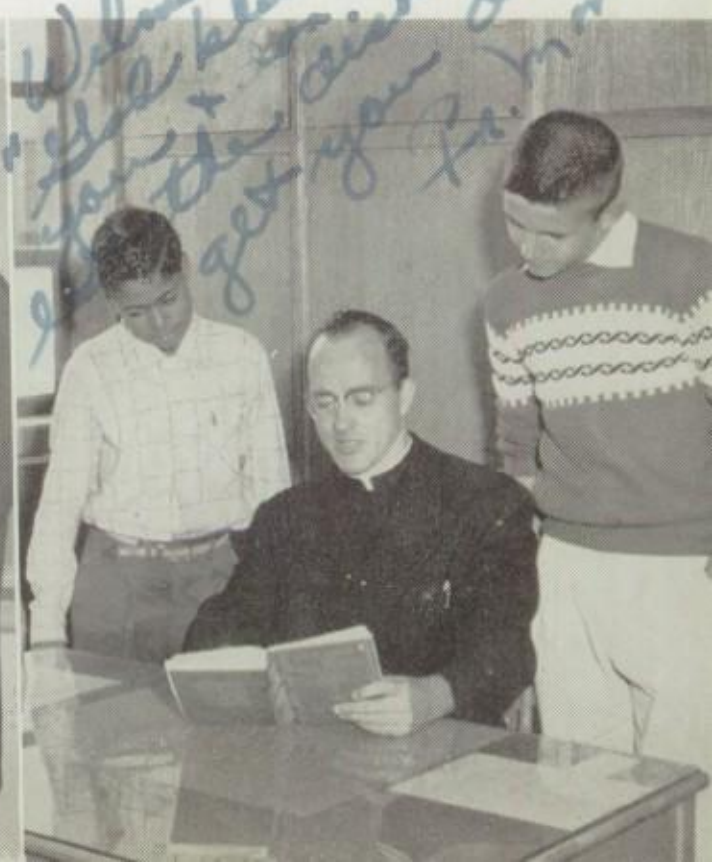
A fine line of distinction is drawn between supernatural and natural virtues by Father Xavier Knopp, O.F.M. Conv., for Dick O'Leary, Jerrie Goda, and Eugene Muccolini.

Religion

Father Raymond Oosdyke, O.F.M. Conv., explains the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity to an intent listener, Richard Dillon. At semester Father was replaced by Father Michael Cody, C.M.F.

Father William Morley interests Joe Curley, Sherry Minar, and Larry Graham in his modern adaptations of the teachings of the New Testament.

Father Lawrence Moran, freshman religion teacher, explains the days of creation to Jack Gardener and Larry Pesavento.



Mathematics and Commerce

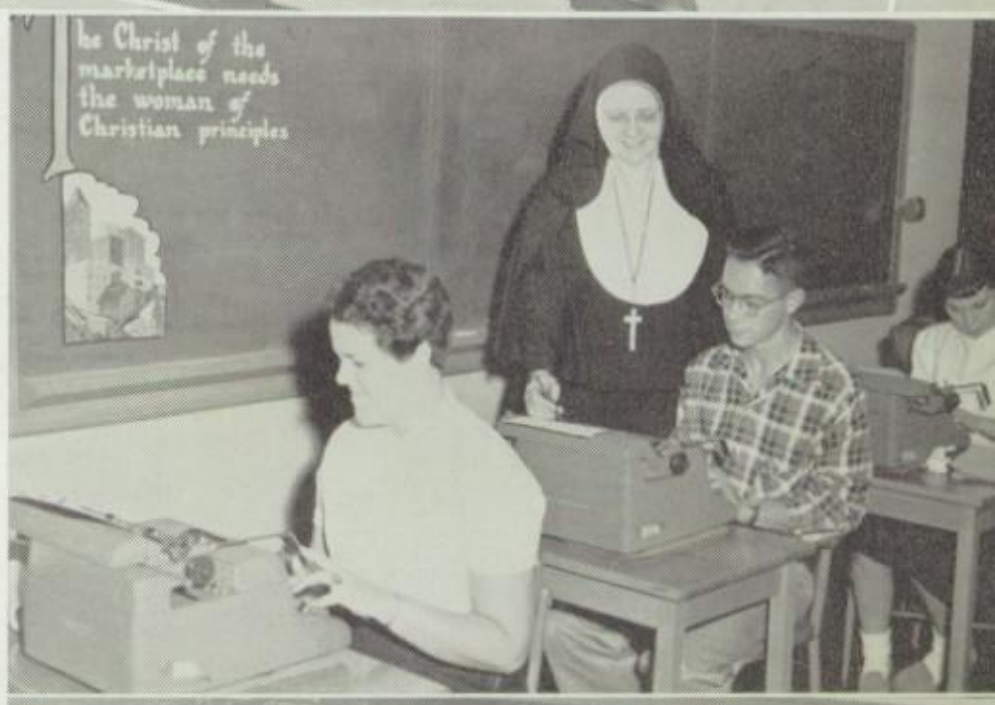
Above left: Assistant coach and junior homeroom teacher, Mr. Joseph Frisz, teaches mechanical drawing, freshman algebra, and advanced algebra classes. He also instructs the driver training group.

Above right: When taught by Sister Winifred, algebra, geometry, solid geometry, trigonometry, and physics take on exciting and challenging aspects. Sister sponsors a homeroom of sophomores, and in addition she gives much of her time to supervision of the book store.

Upper right: Sister Mary Gertrude, M.A., familiarizes her students preparing for the business world with the mechanics of commerce. Sister is a junior homeroom sponsor and is Mitre advisor.

Center right: Until the end of first semester Mrs. Thomas Doyle was teaching classes in typing and home economics. But beginning with the second semester Mrs. Carol Findley took over the classes in typing and physical education.

Lower right: Should you be paying your tuition, returning your report card, or seeking the forgotten combination of your lock, you will receive courteous assistance from Miss Lucille Carbon, our school secretary.



May God bless you always! L. Carbon

Industrial Arts And Languages

At right: Mr. James Berger, our head basketball coach, teaches physical education, industrial arts, and health classes. He is also a freshman homeroom sponsor.

Upper left: Sister Clotilde, M.A., senior homeroom sponsor and librarian, is always available to give assistance to every student of Schulte. Sister also teaches senior English classes.

Sister Mary Helen

Upper right: Sister Mary Helen, M.A., introduces Schulteans to the intracacies of the French language. In addition Sister teaches Spanish and English, is a freshman homeroom sponsor, and still finds time to be moderator of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade.

Lower left: Educating the freshmen in the rudiments of Latin and English, is part of the teaching job of Father James Dooley. Father gives the sophomores in his religion class a deeper understanding of the sacredness of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

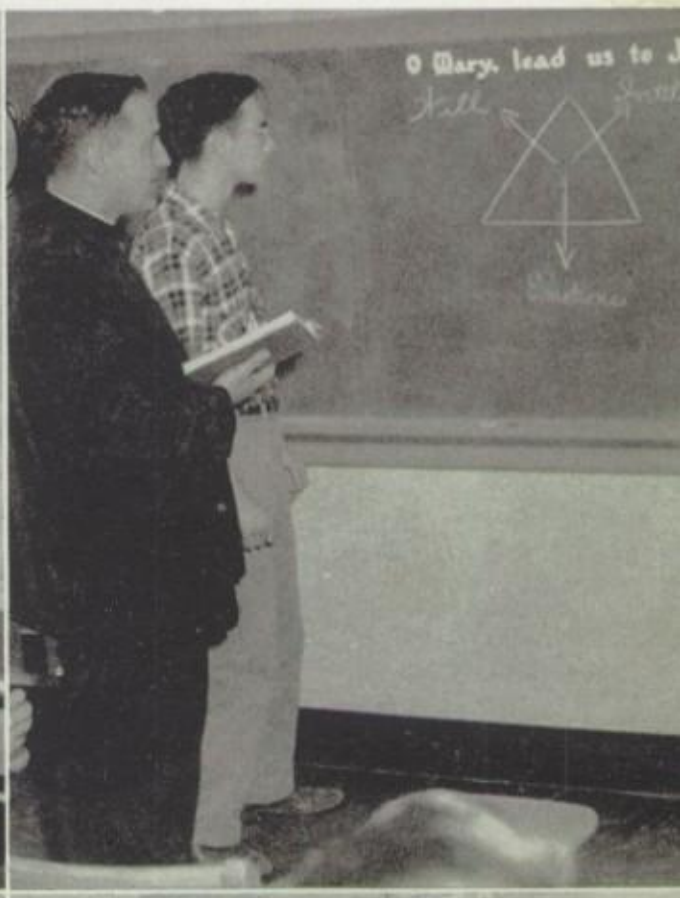
Lower right: Latin becomes practical, provides a good English grammar foundation, and builds a tremendous vocabulary when taught by Sister Winifred Ann.

Science and Social Studies

Upper left: Chemistry, biology, and sophomore English are taught by Sister Jean Margaret, freshman homeroom sponsor. Sister is also faculty advisor of the Future Nurses of America Club.

God bless you!
Sister Jean Margaret

Upper right: Father Joseph V. Beechem, M.A., our principal, gives the upper classmen in a psychology class a few reasons why we behave as we do.



Center left: Mrs. Millicent Uran teaches home economics and physical education. She also supervises the school cafeteria.

Center right: Sophomore homeroom sponsor, Mr. Peter Varda, besides teaching world history and physical education is head football and track coach.

Lower right: Social science classes: government, current world problems, United States history, and sociology are taught by Sister Marie Virginia, M.A. Sister sponsors a senior homeroom, the National Honor Society, and Future Teachers of America Club.

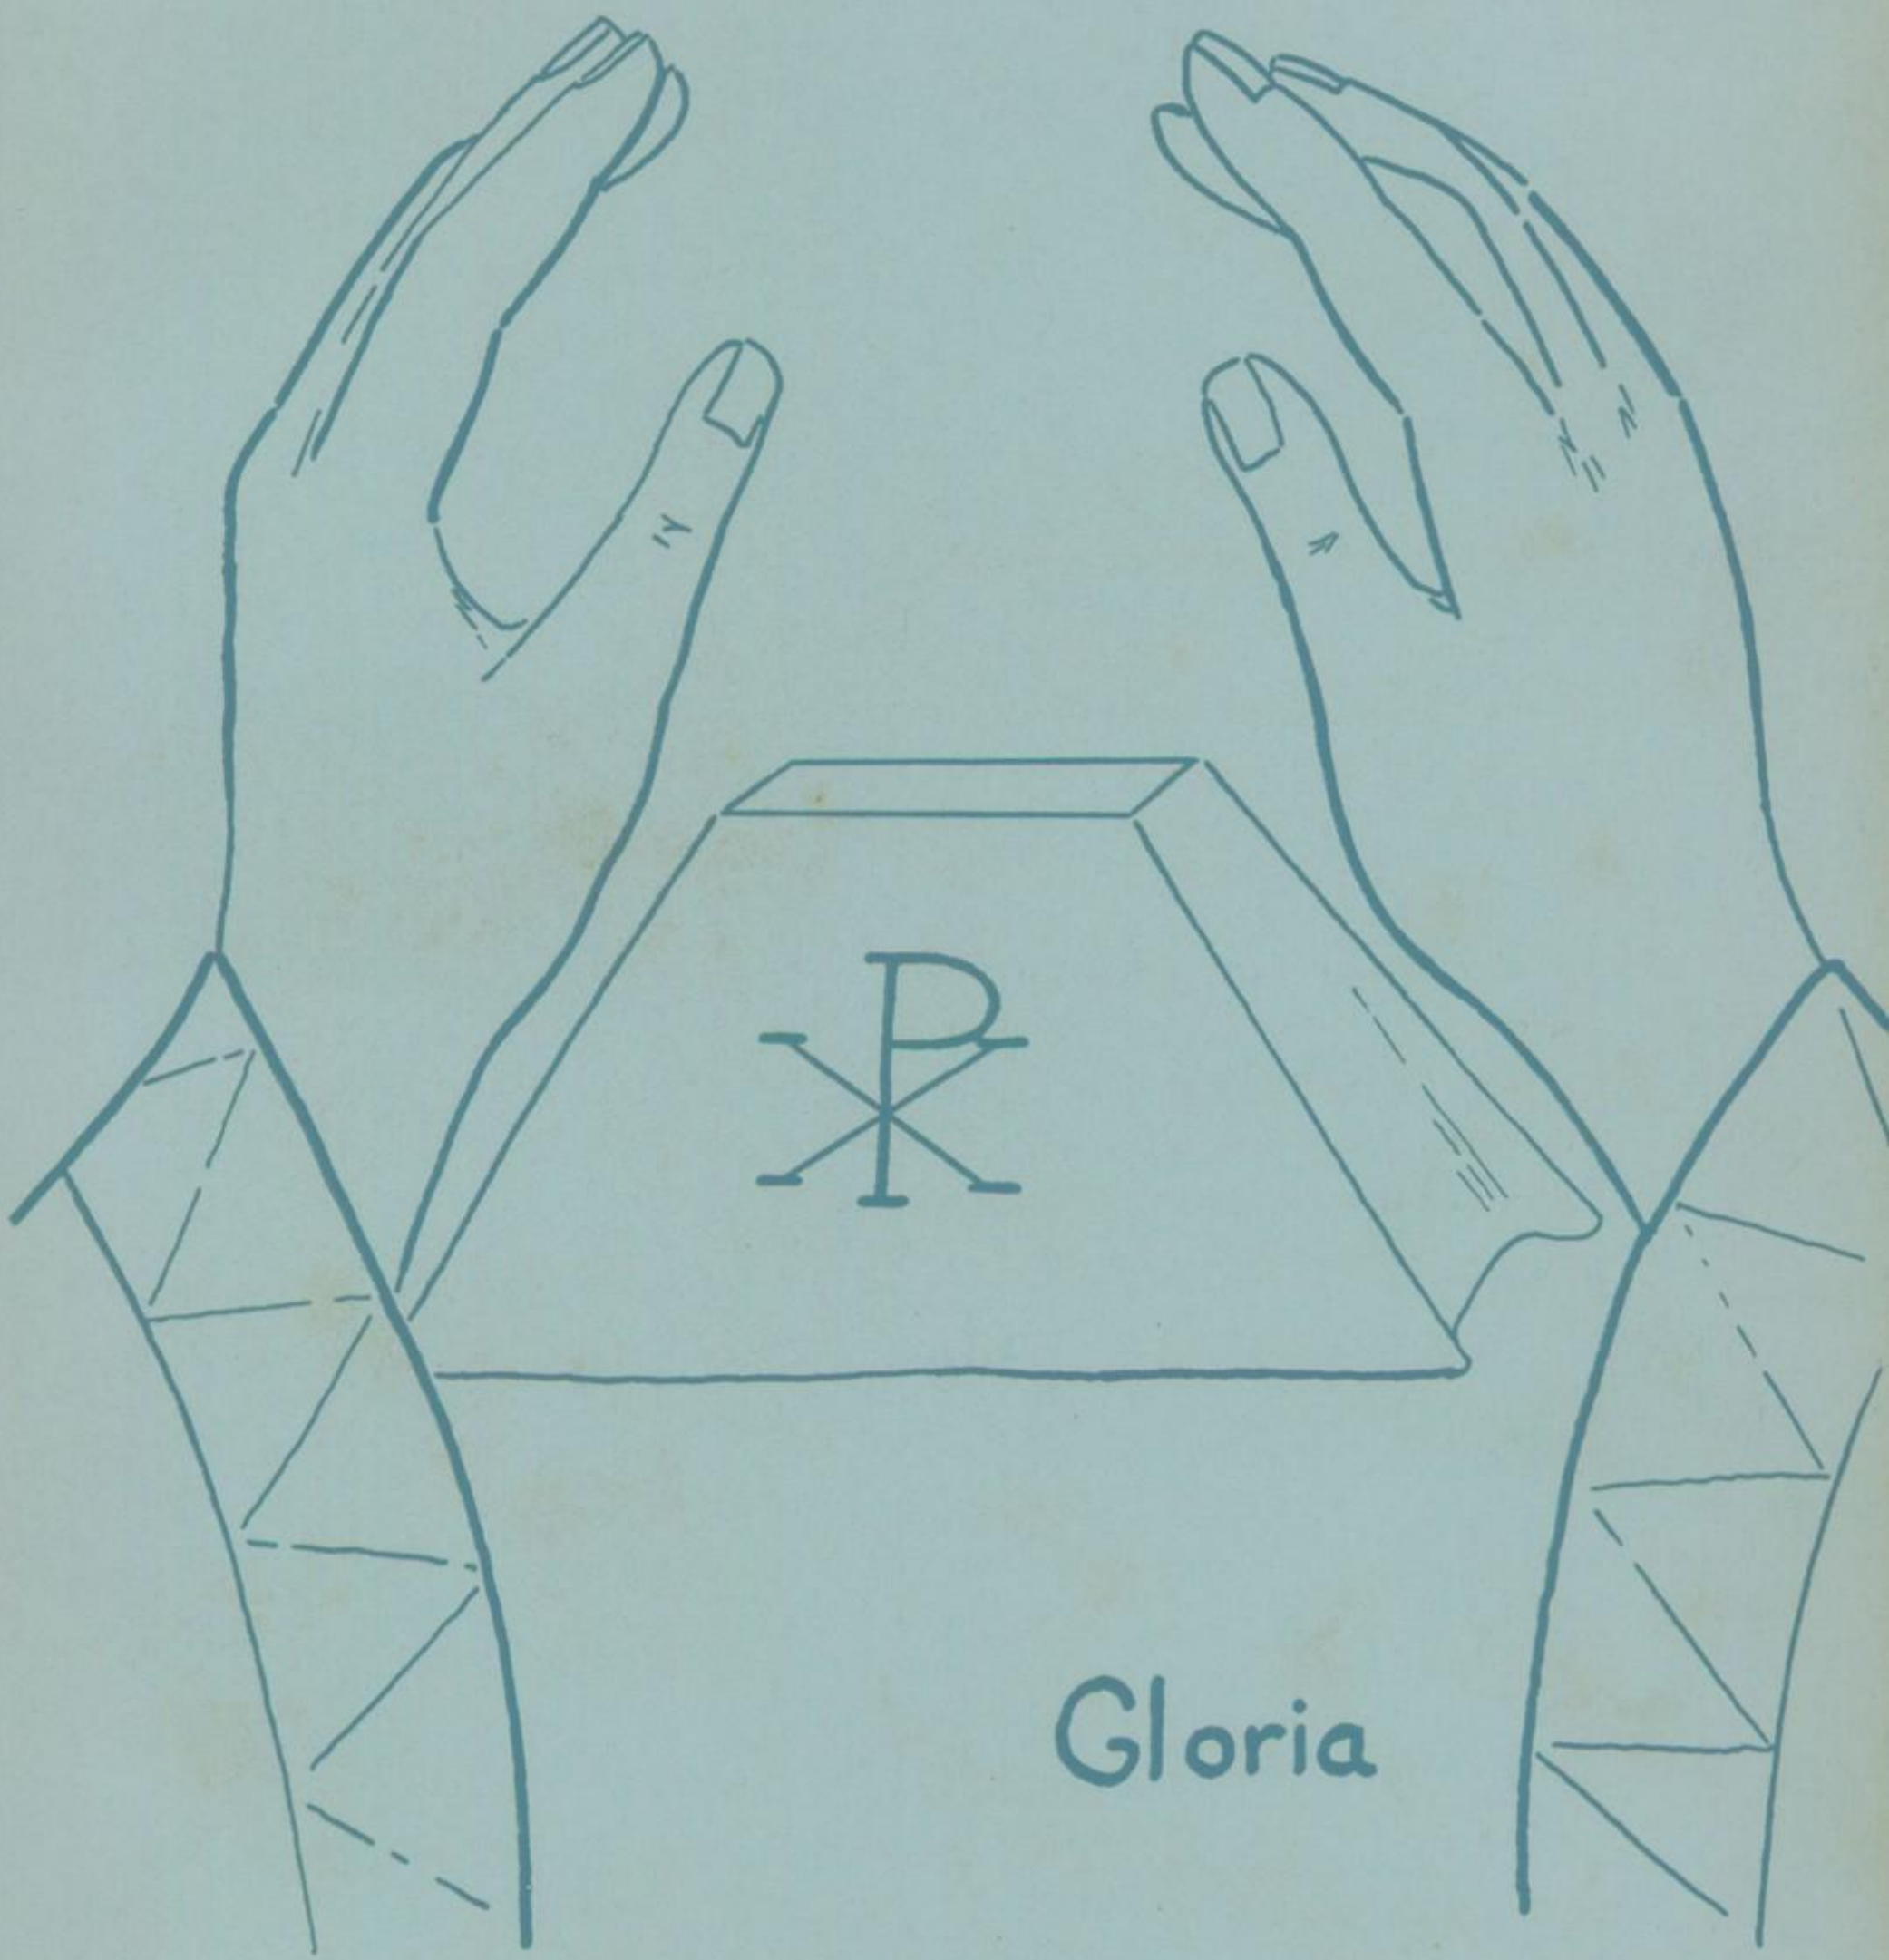
SENIORS

The members of the senior class have distinguished themselves throughout their three years at Schulte for cooperation and excellent class spirit. Since their first days at Schulte, scholastic endeavor, qualities of leadership, and a fine sense of loyalty have marked their character as a class. These seniors have carried on the old and begun the new traditions at Schulte. Under the able and competent leadership of their class officers, they have successfully managed many and various activities, and in so doing have brought honor and prestige to Schulte.



Gloria

Gloria in Excelsis Deo

We who pray in unison with Father Beechem our morning offering every day, and we who put that offering into action, we give truly

"Glory to God in the highest."

We seniors who have activated our morning offering now for the past three years have formed a habit that makes us vitally Catholic every day of the week. This habit of the morning offering will keep us aware of our responsibility as Catholic laymen to give glory first of all to God.

FRESHMEN

Although the first year of high school is usually one marked with bewilderment, our freshmen, from the very beginning, seem to have found their place in Schulte. They have grasped the spirit of Schulte, and we look forward to their continued growth in that spirit of loyalty and enthusiasm which marks all Schulteans. Their officers are: Left to right—Joe Card, President; Sharon Kearney, Secretary; Larry Fruehauf, Vice-President; Carolyn Lindeman, Treasurer.

Student Council

Breaching the gap between students and teachers are the members of the Student Council. Chosen as representatives of the four classes, the Council presents for faculty consideration major school projects and other activities. The purpose of the Student Council is two-fold: it impresses the student body with their importance as individuals and fosters a closer student-faculty relationship.

Secretary-of-the-Month

Members of the Secretary-of-the-Month Club gain practical experience in the secretarial field by giving a great deal of clerical service to the faculty and school office. Operating the mimeograph, a familiar piece of equipment to all club members, are the officers: Left to right—Rosalie Cullen, Secretary-Treasurer; Mary Alice McCrisaken, Vice-President; Carolyn Jo Robinson, President.

Library Club

The members of the Library Club assist Sister Clotilde, librarian and club moderator, in the shelving, cataloging, and repairing of books and magazines. In giving service to the school, these students acquire a working knowledge of library technique. The officers of the club are: seated center left to right: Cathy Boyd, Secretary-Treasurer; Cynthia Boyd, President; Mary Kaye Sullivan, Vice-President.

Red Cross Chapter

Homeroom representatives of the Schulte Chapter of the Red Cross prepare Thanksgiving favors for the mentally incompetent at the State Hospital in Rockfort.

Science Club

A new organization established at Schulte this year is the Science Club, sponsored by Sister Agnes Aloyse. Movies, lectures, and participation in the Indiana Science Fair have been among its activities. The purpose of the club is to impress its members with the many advantages to be found in the world of science.

Richard Slater (seated) demonstrates microwave transmission through lenses to the Science Club officers: Cynthia Boyd, Secretary; Pat Kniptasch, Vice-President; Jim Burns, President; Sister Agnes Aloyse, moderator; Rick Slater, and Bruce Gerard, Treasurer.

Future Nurses of America

The Future Nurses of America, F.N.A., is comprised of junior and senior girls who plan to enter nurses' training after graduation. In order to gain firsthand experience in nursing, members of the club give their service each Saturday in the children's ward of St. Anthony Hospital. Pictured at the right are the officers with the club moderator, Sister Jean Margaret. First Row: Left to right—Carol Smith, President; Marge Thralls, Secretary. Second Row: Sister Jean Margaret, Sandra Van Tol, Vice-President; Marcelyn Conrad, Treasurer.

Future Teachers of America

Girls' Athletic Association

The primary function of the Girls' Athletic Association is to acquaint our girls with the importance of good sportsmanship and co-operation in daily life. The girls participate in swimming, bowling, basketball, and other sports. Girls taking part in G.A.A. activities receive points which may be applied toward the winning of an award. Pictured at upper right, are the G.A.A. officers: Dorothy Dicks, Vice-President; Meredith Johns, President; Darby Costello, Dance Chairman; Lynn Fruehauf, Program Chairman; Paula Welch, Secretary.

Glee Club

Each day the lilting voices of the members of the Glee Club can be heard echoing through the halls of Schulte. The Glee Club has provided us with vocal entertainment on various occasions throughout the year. Sister Clotilde, our Glee Club director, was replaced at semester time by Sister Ann Teresa. Pictured below is a freshman Glee Club group enjoying a weekly practice session.

Numbered among the members of the Schulte Chapter of the National Honor Society are seniors and juniors selected for their outstanding qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Only a few may be members of this group; therefore, the requirements are high. A scholastic average of 85 is the primary requisite. The students' rating in character, leadership, and service must likewise be high.

The C.S.M.C. homeroom representatives were permeated with a true mission spirit this year. Besides collecting the daily sacrifices and the spiritual offering, they gathered food at Thanksgiving and at Christmas to distribute to the needy throughout the city. Pictured above are the homeroom representatives just before they left to deliver Thanksgiving baskets. GIVE OF YOUR PLEASURES, YOUR POCKETBOOK, AND YOUR PRAYERS

The largest organization at Schulte is the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade — better known as the C.S.M.C. The chief aim of the C.S.M.C. is the collection of a monetary offering and the promise of prayers from the students for the missions. Outstanding among the C.S.M.C. activities this year have been the Christmas card sale, the paper drive, and the Easter dance.

Mission-Mindedness

The study clubs, an intrinsic part of the C.S.M.C., endeavor to arouse interest in the foreign and home missions. Although the Don Bosco and Shield Study Clubs have flourished for two years at Schulte, the organization this year of four additional study clubs is a proof of student interest. The clubs carry on many worthwhile projects, thereby assisting the student body to participate in missionary work.

Although it takes a great deal of hard work and determination to publish a yearbook, any staff member will tell you it is time well spent. Many were the moments of discouragement, utter frustration, and despair that we shared; but the will to accomplish, coupled with a steadfastness of purpose, brought its reward in the publication of the 1956 MITRE.

With a sense of satisfaction in achievement, we present to the faculty and student body, Schulte's third annual.

Annual Retreat – A Spiritual Survey

Our annual retreat held during the first three days of Holy Week gave us not only a spiritual uplift but was a means of prayerful preparation for the glorious feast of Easter.

Christmas preparations at Schulte include the decorating of homeroom bulletin boards and the huge Christmas tree in the cafeteria; practicing for the traditional play; and the erecting of the outdoor crib. Each week as the Advent season progresses, the student body, under the direction of the four class presidents, unites in the ceremonial lighting of the candles of the Advent Wreath.

Seniors Present "Matilda"

Under the direction of Miss June Duffy, drama major of St. Mary-of-the-Woods College, the seniors of '55 presented Ira Avery's "Matilda." Donna Wilson excellently portrayed the maid, Matilda, who having forced her way into the employ of a normal American family, the Lambs, solved all their problems and became a permanent fixture.

Chambermaids Roseann Corey and Patty Duffy prepare the castle chapel for the Christmas vigil.

A highlight of the pre-holiday season was the Christmas play presented by the freshman class. The play, "The Christmas Knight," by Dorothea M. Meldon depicted the story of a young knight, who in breaking his all-night vigil in the castle chapel in order to help an old lady, serves the Blessed Lady in disguise. The play was directed by Miss Carole Biondi, a drama student from St. Mary-of-the-Woods College.

The pre-Lenten Carnival is one of the most exciting events of the entire year. This year's Carnival was a tremendous success as a source of entertainment and financial aid for the school. Under the direction of four faculty advisors and the members of the student council, the entire student body united in a harmonious and cooperative school project excelled by none.

Schulte Enthusiasts

We dedicate this page of our book to those whose tireless interest has resulted in many benefits for Schulte. Proof of this interest is evidenced in their loyal support and furtherance of our athletic department, and in the acquisition of additional equipment so necessary in a new school. Sincere is the appreciation and gratitude of each Schulte student for these generous benefactors.

Rampant Bears Prove Mighty Aggressors

Displaying powerful offense and strong defense, the Golden Bears rolled over the Dugger Bulldogs to open the season with a 27-0 victory. Moreland, Gourdouze, and O'Leary were offensive standouts.

The following week the Bears overcame the stubborn Brazil Red Devils, 6-0. Playing on a rainswept field, the Bears broke O'Leary loose late in the third quarter. He dashed 75 yards to pay dirt.

With two victories under their belt, the Bears tied into Schlarman of Danville. Outscored by two touchdowns in the first half, Schulte returned with first-class football in the second half; but time ran out on them, and the game ended 12-7 for Schlarman.

In the initial opener of the city series the Bears, sparked by the high-geared and fast running backs, O'Leary, Moreland, and J. Sullivan, and the fine quarterbacking of Kulinski, chalked up their first city series victory over Tech, 20-0.

Greencastle found the Golden Bears still victory conscious and went down in defeat 25-7. The Bears' offensive was led by the terrific line play of Felix, Hazeltine, R. Sullivan, Troth, Youart, Garvin, and Hegarty.

Chalking up their fifth victory of the season, the Bears avenged last year's defeat at the hands of Linton, 35-7

For their only road game, Schulte traveled to Huntingburg and downed the Happy Hunters 19-0. Merrill and O'Leary were standouts in offense while Hegarty showed fine defense.

Both boasting 6-1 records, the Wiley Red Streaks and Schulte Golden Bears went into the second city series on November 4. The Bears were plagued by "fumbleitis," and Wiley took advantage of every error. The final score stood Wiley 41-Schulte 21.

Closing out the season, Schulte in a spirited attempt to overcome an early 21-point lead went down to defeat to city rival, Garfield.

Cubs Today – Bears Tomorrow

Small but mighty the "B" team shows promise of a rough and ready line and a fast, powerful backfield. To its credit is a 5-4 season with a win over Brazil and double victories over Garfield and Gibault. They were twice defeated by Tech and Wiley. With a year of rugged experience behind them, future opponents should find the cubs stiff competition. The freshman squad came through with a fine 5-4 record. Although they had limited playing experience, they show the spirit and ability of future stars.

Under the able direction of the Varsity Cheerleaders and Mr. Joseph Frisz, the block has spirited the team to sportsmanlike defeats as well as victories.

"Green and Gold Mean Victory"

Terre Haute's Memorial Stadium pictured above was the scene of the last grid contests of our senior varsity's high school career. Ken Moreland, shifty halfback during the season, had a remarkable average of 5.8 yards per carry. With his fine runs he saved many games for the Bears. Quarterback Bob Gourdouze, injured early in the season, came through with 5.0 yards per carry. He also had 11 tackles while playing as defensive halfback. Charlie Poths and Len Garvin, lanky ends both on offense and defense, did some outstanding pass receiving and each contributed 10 tackles on defense. Captain Jack Felix, who earned a berth at the guard position on the All-Valley squad, not only did a terrific job on offense but racked up 18 tackles as defensive halfback. Dale Secrest, 185-pound tackle, with superb line play came through with 25 tackles for the season. Jim Sullivan, changing off at halfback and fullback positions, averaged 5.2 yards per carry and placed third in defensive tackles with 28. Schulte will miss these gridiron specialists.

The election of our football queen was the climax of the gridiron season. Under the sponsorship of the Student Council, Bernadette Hayworth was chosen by the student body as this year's queen. Tip Off

With this tip off, the Bears opened their 1955-56 season against the Brazil Red Devils by winning 53-48. This was the beginning of the Bears first winning season. As the season progressed, the Bears showed vast improvement on defense and offense alike. The Schulte basketeers not only began a new season, but also had a new coach, Jim Berger, under whom they compiled their first winning season in two years of varsity competition with 14 wins and 10 losses.

Bears In Action

With only two years of varsity basketball under their belts, the Golden Bears opened their third season by defeating a rugged Brazil five, 53-48, followed by an impressive victory over Montezuma, 59-44. Losing an early 16-point lead, the Bears bowed to Switz City, 58-62. This did not affect them for they bounced back with an overwhelming victory over Scecina of Indianapolis, 60-39; Otter Creek buckled under at a 66-48 score. Not being able to hit from the field, the Bears dropped the city series opener to Wiley, 30-49. The following game, however, they trounced State, 60-55, and brought home their first city victory in three years. Their biggest triumph was the shellacking of the undefeated Bees of Honey Creek. The next night they scored a 70-67 victory over Concannon.

The Schulte Bears entered the Wabash Valley Tournament with a mediocre 7-4 record. At the opportune time, the Bears hit their peak. By scoring impressive victories over Blackhawk and Honey Creek and defeating their old Southside rival, Wiley, the Bears became the proud possessors of the Wabash Valley Prelim Trophy. Then moving into the semi-finals, they defeated Ellettsville, 59-53, only to be defeated by Tech, 53-69.

The Bears closed their successful season with a 14-10 record.

Lower left: Coach Berger with Honorary Tournament Captains, J. Sullivan and R. Sullivan, inspects Wabash Valley Prelim Trophy.

Lower right: John "Bug" Moore goes up for an easy two points.

The Cubs, predominately a freshman team, had a successful season under the guidance of Coach Varda. With an 11-9 record they were second in city competition and show promise for the coming seasons.

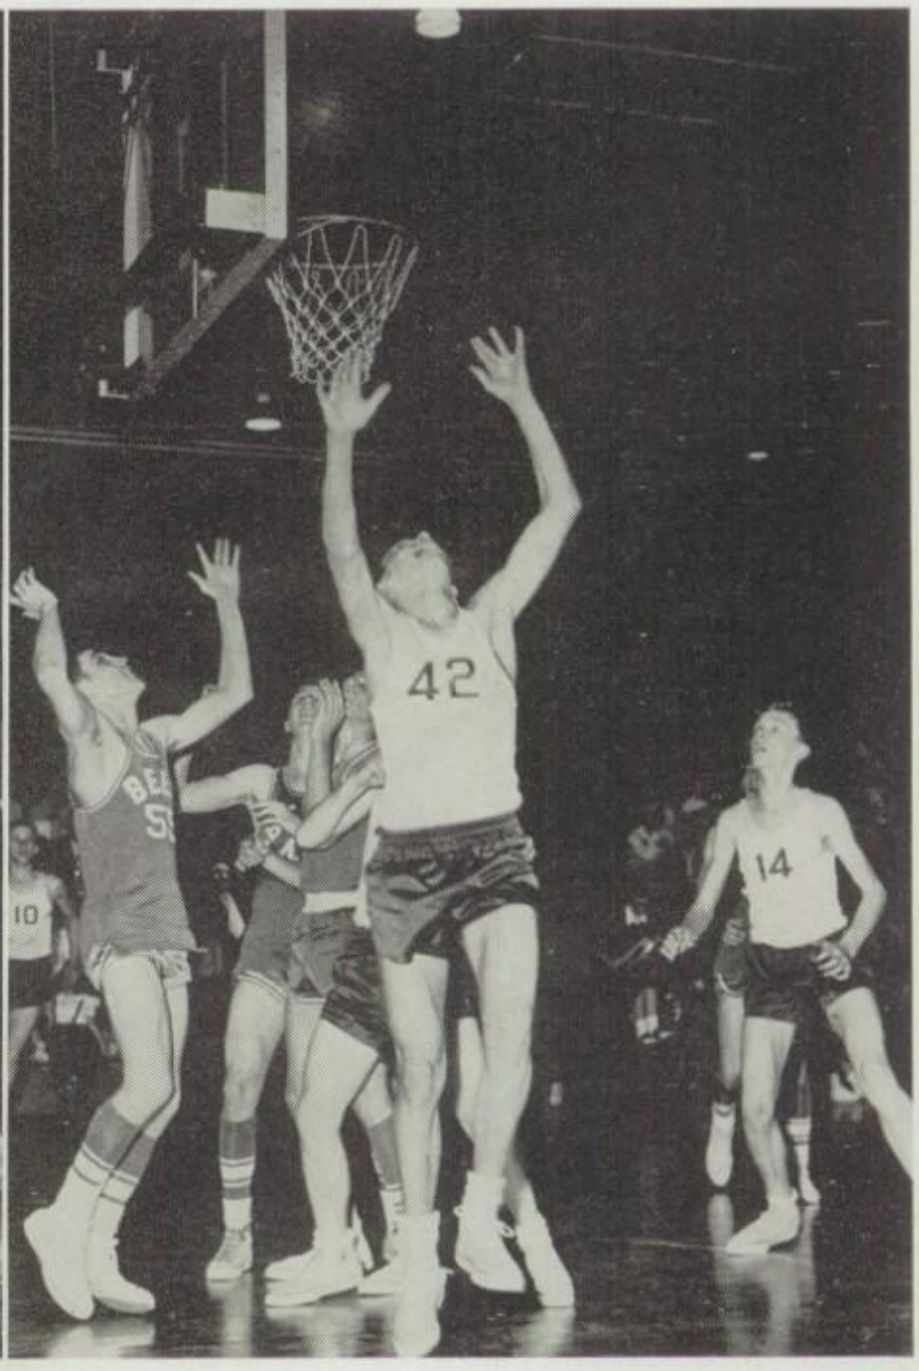
B-ear TEAM

Bob Scott, 6'1" freshman center, goes up for a shot.

Clarence Reedy takes a backward shot as Scott looks on.



Toastmaster Farrell Rippetoe congratulates the basketball team at the annual banquet sponsored by the Schulte Booster Club.

Boosters Hosts to Hardwood Squad

Guest speaker, Duane Kleuh, head basketball coach of Indiana State, commends the Golden Bears on their competitive spirit.

Paul Troth, 6'4" junior guard, receives the Fusco Outstanding Basketball Player Award from Mr. Neidlinger, President of the Booster Club. The award is made in recognition of his superb all-around ability on the court.

Father Beechem presents the free-throw trophy to John Moore for his 74 per cent foul shot average.

Warm Weather Sports: Baseball

Baseball squad because of cold weather warms up in gym.

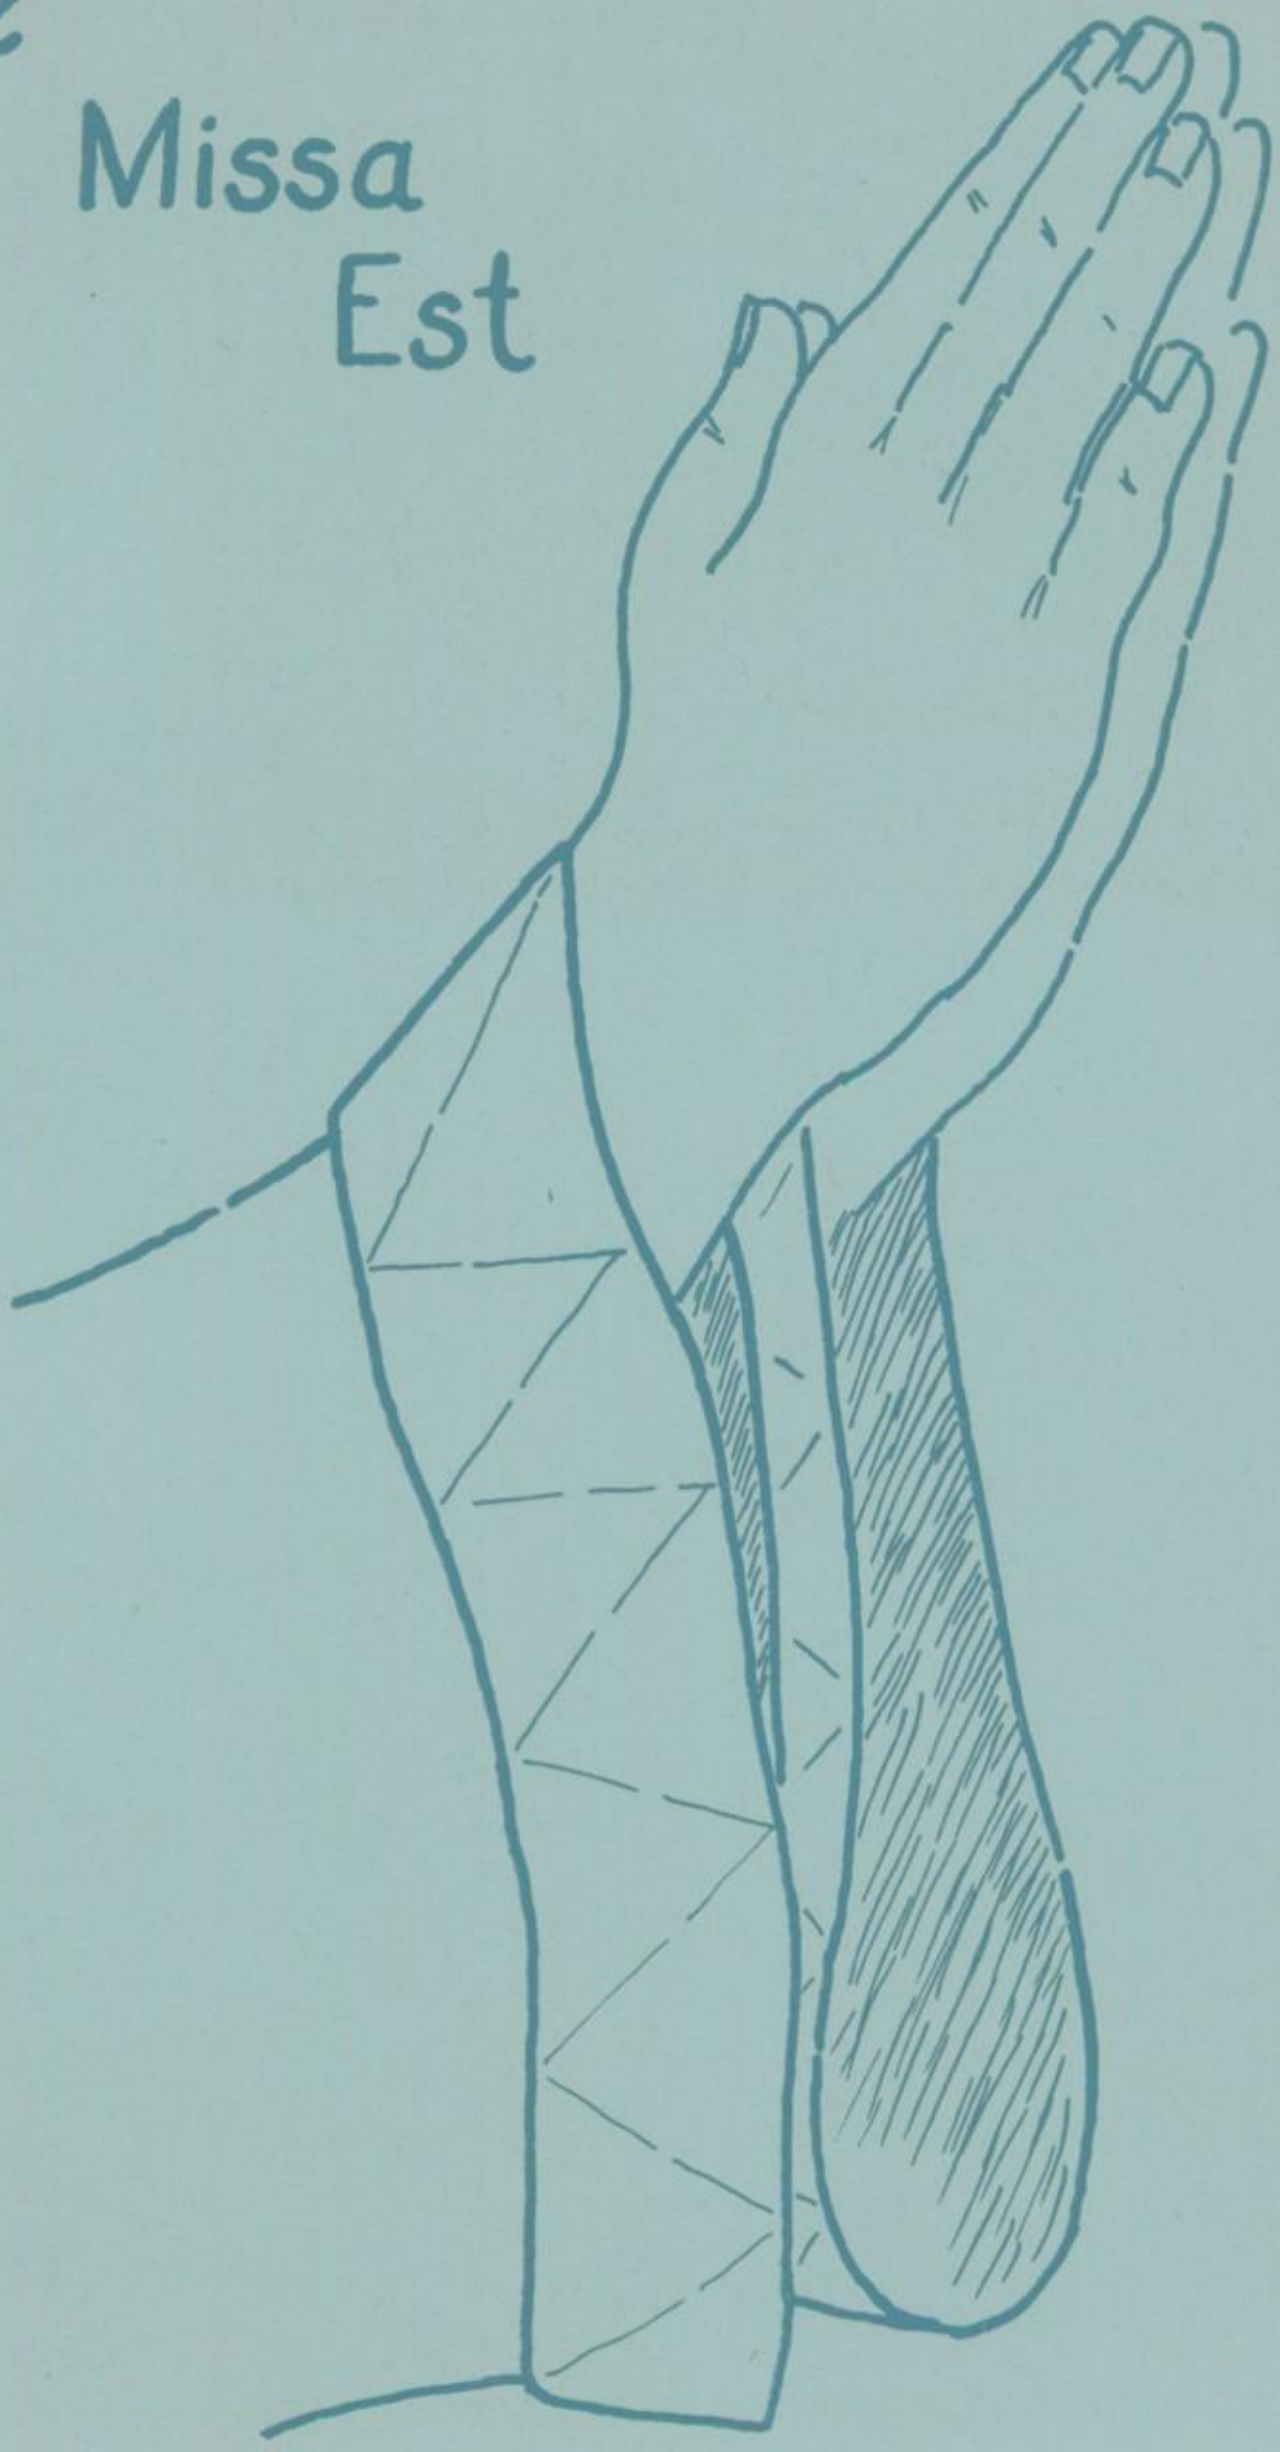
Ite Missa Est

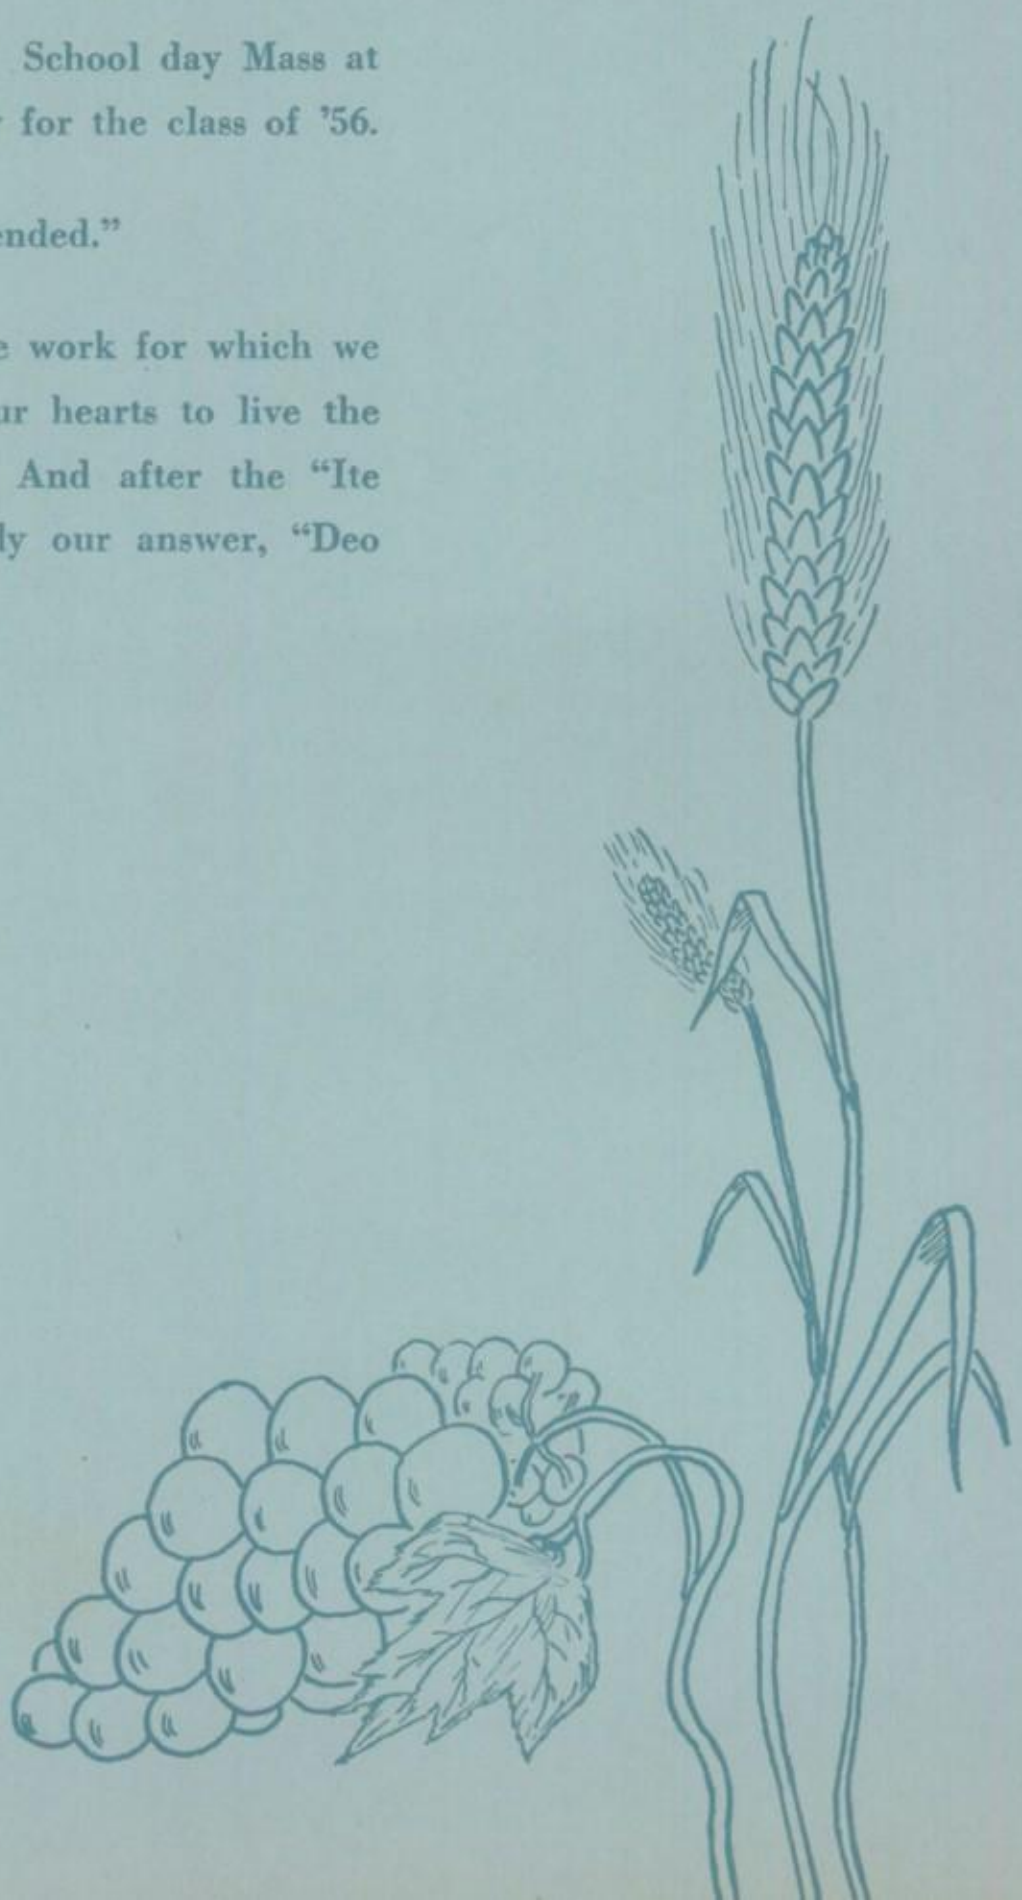


Ite Missa Est

Commencement day is coming. School day Mass at Schulte will be only a memory for the class of '56.

"Go the Mass is ended."

We go forth into life to do the work for which we were trained, with grace in our hearts to live the ideals which signify Schulte. And after the "Ite Missa Est" comes spontaneously our answer, "Deo gratias for Schulte High."



Archbishop Schulte addresses the audience at the commencement exercises.

COMMENCEMENT

Graduation marks that final step from adolescence to young adulthood. Some of us go on to further our education; others of us will assume the responsibilities of the work-a-day world. Although Commencement Day is the attainment of a temporal goal, it is but another step toward our eternal goal.

Archbishop Schulte, assisted by Msgr. Henry Hermann presents diplomas to June graduates.

You, Education, and Industry...

Partners in a Bright Tomorrow

One of the greatest opportunities facing America today is the preparation of qualified leaders for tomorrow . . . and there's every indication that the right combination for accomplishing this is rapidly taking shape.

First, there's you — and the growing number of alert young people like you upon whom any successful venture in the future must be built.

Then, there are our schools and teachers—an educational system that right now is doing such a fine job of adjusting itself to increasing enrollments and constantly changing subject matter.

Newest member of the team is industry, which is becoming ever more aware of its responsibility by providing grants, scholarships, on-the-job training, classroom aids and other educational help.

Allis-Chalmers is happy to be a part of this partnership in a better, brighter tomorrow.

One of the latest visual aids to education prepared by Allis-Chalmers is this 12-page, illustrated booklet, "The Story of Power Generation."
